POPE JOHN PAUL II, WORLD YOUTH DAY (JULY 28, 2002)

ALTHOUGH I HAVE LIVED THROUGH MUCH DARKNESS, UNDER HARSH TOTALITARIAN REGIMES, I HAVE SEEN ENOUGH EVIDENCE TO BE UNSHAKABLY CONVINCED THAT NO DIFFICULTY, NO FEAR IS SO GREAT THAT IT CAN COMPLETELY SUFFOCATE THE HOPE THAT SPRINGS ETERNAL IN THE HEARTS OF THE YOUNG. DO NOT LET THAT HOPE DIE.

MORE WARTIME TESTIMONIALS ABOUT THE WHITE ROSE

"'Young German Martyrs.' If [the White Rose manifesto] is genuine, and there is reason to doubt that it is, we can see in it the beginning of the end of the nightmare period in Germany itself. . . . These young Munich students—few or many—representative or otherwise—rose gloriously. . . protesting in the name of principles which Hitler thought he had killed forever. In years to come we, too, may honor [Sergeant-sic] Hans Scholl, Sophia [sic] Scholl, Christophe Probst, Alexander Schmorell, Kurt Huber and William Graf, slain in Munich for a cause that is also ours" —THE NEW YORK TIMES, Editorial Eulogizing White Rose, August 2, 1943.

"I will never forget the excitement when a leaflet was pressed into my hand by somebody in the editorial room of the Allgemeine Zeitung. The leaflets were being circulated by White Rose followers in Hamburg. Something inflammatory, heartening—yes, magical!—emanated from these typewritten and hectographed [mimeographed] lines. We copied them off and passed them on. A wave of enthusiasm swept over us—we who risked so damned little in comparison." —URSULA VON KARDOFF (Legendary journalist; reporter at Nuremberg War Crimes Tribunal, 1945.)
